PEIDAY EVENING, SEPT. S. 1899

MRS. THOMAS'S TWO ROUNDS WITH A BEAR -Mrs. Thomas, wife of Humphrey Thomas, of Humphrey's mill, near Lebanon, Or., recently had a live ly fight with a black bear. While she was knocked out in the second round she has the satisfaction of knowing that she mede a good fight.

Mrs. Thomas was out picking black-berries when she found the bear there on the same mission. Woman and bear proceeded to settle the question of right to the patch. Bruin, thinking be had a right by possession, at once rose on hi haunches and made for Mrs. Thomas, who defended herself as best she could, but was knocked down by a cuff from bruin and would have been badly birten but for the prompt action of shepherd dog, who tackied the bear from the rear.

This attracted the attention of the bear from Mrs. Taomas and she immediately got up, and, seeing her dog in danger of being killed, grabbed a club and proceeded to give bruin the secon' round, but he was ready for her and at once dealt her such a blow on the head as to completely knock her out. When she regained consciousness the hear and dog had vanished and she had the whole field to herself, but concluded to try to get back home before broin returned. Aside from being scratched and bruised up some she is as well as d plucky as ever .- [Lebanon
